Newnan Carnegie Library Celebrates 15th Anniversary of Reopening

As we approach the 15th anniversary of the Newnan Carnegie Library's reopening, we want to take some time to recommit to our citizens and our community. We want to make sure we are providing services that fit with what our community wants. We will have several ways to share your thoughts on the future of the Carnegie Library. We will be holding two open gatherings at the Carnegie (1 LaGrange Street, Newnan, GA 30263) if you would like to come talk to us in person. We will also be sending out a survey via email and have it at the front desk. Thank you so much for all of your support over the past 15 years and we look forward to continuing to serve you.
