Rotary Club 100 Year Anniversary Proclamation

Mayor Brady proclaimed today as the Rotary Club of Newnan 100th Anniversary Day.

In the proclamation Mayor Brady shared that the Rotary Club of Newnan, Georgia was established on February 29, 1924 with 19 charter members and was sponsored by the Rotary Club of West Point. The club was founded by a group of local business and community leaders and has always been guided by the Rotary International motto "Service Above Self" and has played a pivotal role in making Newnan a better place to live and work for over ten decades. Over the years, the Rotary Club of Newnan has been actively involved in a wide range of projects and initiatives aimed at improving the quality of life for residents of the area, including supporting local schools and education programs, providing scholarships for deserving students, participating in community beautification projects and contributing to humanitarian efforts both locally and internationally. In addition to its philanthropic endeavors, the Rotary Club of Newnan places a strong emphasis on fostering fellowship and camaraderie among its members with weekly meetings, social gatherings and networking opportunities that provide members with a platform to build lasting friendships and professional connections while also strengthening their commitment to service.

The Rotary Club of Newnan continues to be a beacon of hope, service, and leadership, making a profound impact on the lives of countless individuals and organizations in the Newnan, Georgia area and remains committed to its mission of making the world a better place, one service project at a time. We encourage all citizens to celebrate this dynamic and dedicated organization.
