Weekly Highlights

Southern LitFest

On Saturday, the Newnan Carnegie Library Foundation, along with the Newnan Carnegie Library, the Newnan Cultural Arts Commission, and many others, hosted Southern LitFest, a festival to celebrate authors works in our community. Authors like Sally Bethea, Glen Roland, CC Lockwood, and Sean Dietrich all impressed their audiences with the importance of literature and their works. All the proceeds toward these events will go to supporting the Newnan Carnegie Library and the Newnan Cultural Arts Commission so they can continue to provide Newnan with quality community events.

Jazz in the Park

Experience the joys of music, laughter, and fun with Jazz in the Park in the Greenville Street Park on June 21 at 7:30pm. Bring your family, friends, and a chair to enjoy world class jazz in our beautiful outdoor amphitheater. Kicking off this series is Luis Alas who has been named “The Sax of the South” for the talent, charisma, and sheer joy he brings to every stage. Luis’ last three singles have placed him in the #1 spot on the Smooth Jazz Charts and garnered him a position as a true performer in today’s smooth jazz industry.
