Weekly Highlights

Patti Callahan Henry at the Carnegie

On April 11, the Newnan Carnegie Library and the Newnan Carnegie Library Foundation hosted an Edgar B. Hollis Distinguished Author event where New York Times best-selling author, Patti Callahan Henry, spoke about her most recent book, The Story She Left Behind, which released in March earlier this year. With a packed audience, Ms. Henry autographed and personalized her books which were for sale during the event. The Newnan Carnegie Library Foundation also provided appropriate snacks of scones and iced lemon teas for the occasion. For more information about events at the Newnan Carnegie Library, visit their website.

Youth Council Graduates

On Tuesday, local high school students who have participated in the Newnan Youth Council over the past three years were honored at the Newnan City Council meeting for their engagement with their local government. We wish them the best in their future endeavors. For more information about the Newnan Youth Council, visit the City of Newnan website.
