Weekly Highlights

Adaptive Sports: Pickleball

On Wednesdays, the Newnan Leisure Services Department has been hosting an Adaptive Sports: Pickleball Program. Participants are taught the basics of the sport at the House of Pickleball (HOP), and were offered an after workout snack. For more information about the Adaptive Sports program, visit the City of Newnan website.

Printmaking Craft at the Carnegie

On Friday, the Newnan Carnegie Library hosted a printmaking event. Printmaking is when you take a surface and cover it with materials to give it shape before coating it in a paint like substance and transfer the textured image onto another surface. All the participants created their printmaking craft and took it home. For more information about the craft programs, visit the Carnegie Library website.
